|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------|-------------------------------------|-------------------------------|------------------------------|
| What technology do you use to communicate with staff? | | | | |
| How does your program use technology to share resources such as lesson plans? | | | | |
| How does your program use technology for collaborative work (ex: shared drives)? | | | | |
| How does your program use technology to facilitate communication among staff at different locations? | | | | |
| How does your program use technology to facilitate communication among instructional staff and data entry staff? | | | | |
| How do you use technology to communicate with partners? | | | | |
| How do you use technology to promote your program to your community? | | | | |
| How will you communicate availability of distance learning to partners and the community, especially during classroom closures? | | | | |

Part 2: Developing Your Plan

Considerations:

- 1. Based on Part 1, what are your priorities for improving use of technology and distance learning for this program year?
- 2. What policies and procedures do you currently have in place to support your priorities? What policies and procedures do you need to develop or revise?
- 3. How well prepared are staff to address the priorities you have identified?
- 4. How well prepared are students to address your priorities? Do they have access to the required technology?
- 5. Do you have the necessary technology (think hardware and software) to address your priorities? What existing hardware is due to be upgraded?
- 6. What technology is available to you through internal or external partners (ex: other programs in an intermediate unit/community college)? Are there grants available to improve technology in your program or for your students?
- 7. How much money do you have to purchase software/hardware this program year?
