Benefits of Adult Learners Enrolling in Corrections and Reentry Programming:

- Assistance with obtaining identification documents, transportation, childcare, digital devices, and testing fees.
- Individualized assistance with clemency and record expungement.
- Shared case management to help adults meet probation requirements and possibly reduce justice system involvement.
- Promote independence for individuals.

Benefits of Corrections and Reentry Participants Enrolling in Adult Basic Education Programming:

- Increase in education skills improves work opportunities and supports transition to postsecondary training opportunities.
- Increase in education skills often reduces recidivism rates.
- Family literacy programs address the literacy needs of all members of the family while promoting parents' involvement in their children's education.
