

Benefits of Cross-Agency Partnerships

Health and Human Services

Basic Needs Assistance

- Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF)
- Supplemental and Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP)
- Employment, Advancement and Retention Network (EARN)
- Education Leading to Employment and Career Training (ELECT)
- Keystone Education Yields Success (KEYS)
- Work Ready
- Local Community Action Agency

Health and Wellness Support

- Health Care/Medical Assistance
- Mental Health Services
- Domestic Violence Crisis and Prevention

Housing and Homelessness Barrier Reduction

- Low-income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP)
- Refugee Resettlement Program
- Homelessness Assistance

Benefits of Adult Learners Enrolling in Health and Human Services Programming:

- Assistance with obtaining identification documents, transportation, childcare, books, supplies, digital devices, and testing fees.
- Dedicated case manager that provides individualized personal goal planning and support with problem-solving and barrier reduction.
- Promote independence for individuals and their families.

Benefits of Health and Human Services Participants Enrolling in Adult Basic Education Programming:

- Increase in education skills improves work opportunities and supports transition to postsecondary training opportunities.
- Family literacy programs address the literacy needs of all members of the family while promoting parents' involvement in their children's education.
- Adult education could be an approved activity towards participation hours. (Check with your local provider for more information).

For assistance with building and strengthening cross-agency partnerships contact the Workforce Development System Liaison Project.