

Remote/Hyflex ELA Activities and Resources

Monday, February 14, 2022

The following list of resources was created by the session participants.

Strategies	Resources	Challenges *Please include your name and email address if you'd like additional support.
Flipped classroom model	CommonLit - A free digital tool that helps students in grades five through twelve make measurable gains in reading and writing.	Dividing teacher attention
Using breakout rooms - Be explicit with tasks and directions.	PBS	Managing breakout rooms
Breakout rooms - Facilitator bounces between rooms for support	Ted Talks - Video created from a presentation at the main TED (technology, entertainment, design) conference or one of its many satellite events around the world
Consistency and developing a routine	Khan Academy - Approved curriculum that provides free instructional video tutorials and interactive exercises

Strategies	Resources	Challenges *Please include your name and email address if you'd like additional support.
I start each class with this: https://learningenglish.voanews.com/ (daily 1-minute international news) After the first listen, students name the places we heard about. Then we listen again and pause for students to summarize each story in their own words. (intermediate to advanced ESL)	www.spencerlearning.com - Phonics software helps you teach beginning and struggling readers of all ages to be accurate, fluent readers with higher comprehension.
Use dictionary from phone/computer.	http://a4esl.org/search/ Google Search for "Activities for ESL Students."
	Breaking News English - A free site with ready-to-use EFL/ESL lesson plans, 26-page handout, graded news articles at pre-intermediate and intermediate-plus, listenings, online quizzes, podcasts, and communicative activities
	Google Classroom - To organize
	Newsela, ESL Library, Kahoot, Online BINGO
	One by Wacom - Write on Zoom screen and on web pages.

Strategies	Resources	Challenges *Please include your name and email address if you'd like additional support.
	https://www.voanews.com/
	Teacherspayteachers - First and largest open marketplace where teachers share, sell, and buy original educational resources in various digital and downloadable formats
	IXL - Approved curriculum that provides students with drill and practice activities
	Google Docs - Gets them collaborating	