Includes four live webinars, practice using skills between webinars, peer observation, and individual coaching

Advancing Equity in Adult Education

Offered in spring

Advancing Equity in Adult Education brings together adult education practitioners from across Pennsylvania to develop common language for advancing equity, explore the concept of leading with racial equity, and operationalize changes in our work that advance equity for students enrolled in adult education programs. We all have the opportunity to impact student success, regardless of our roles and spheres of influence, and this training has resources for all.

The learning objectives of the training are to:

- Develop and apply common language and frameworks for understanding systemic oppression and minoritization in adult education.
- Explore what it means to lead with racial equity.
- Identify and envision the ways in which policies, procedures, and practices within the adult education system can advance racial equity.
- Identify and develop strategies that combat bias and disparate outcomes in program administration, teaching and learning, and student support.
